IN THE COURTS

Robert Lee Cole, the Young Man From Georgia, Gets One Year.

ED WARD HAS RUN AWAY

There Were Two More Cases Against Him and One Fine Was Enough For Him.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE OTHER COURTS

Robert Lee Cole, charged with grand larceny, pleaded guilty this morning in circuit court and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. He is the harnessmaker who recently stole two diamond rings at Mr. R. C. Callahan's, where he was boarding, and pawned them. His father is postmaster in a small town near Atlanta, Ga., and the prisoner seems to be weak minded. He claims he was under the influence of morphine at the time the rings were stolen.

Harney Levitan was granted a divorce from his wife, Ann Levitan.

Ed Ward, charged with selling liquor to minors forfeited his bond by not making an appearance when his case was called.

He was fined $500 yesterday for keeping a disorderly house, and there are two other cases against him. He is alleged to have skipped the town, as he cannot be located anywhere. His saloon has been seized by Mr. John Ruckelshaus, his bondsman.

Delia Morton, charged with petty larceny, was sentenced to twenty days in the county jail.

Alice Williams, alias "Inky Dink," for going into Frank Kassington's saloon and stealing a quantity of provisions, was given three years. She only finished serving a two year sentence a few months ago.

George Smith, colored, who beat up Viola Green in a most brutal manner back of the cemetery and burying her, left her for dead, was given five years, the limit for malicious assault.

Ida French was fined $75 for keeping a bawdy house.

Three indictments against Leo Welch were dismissed.

An indictment against James Campbell, colored, for selling liquor without a license, was dismissed.

COUNTY COURT.

Thomas L. Allard and wife, Minnie Allard, deed to G. W. Robertson for the consideration of the sum of $2,500 property on Second and Broadway.

Property on the west side of Grand avenue near Rockman street, was transferred to Chamblin and Murray by W. B. Brown for $75.

John Segenfelder and others transferred to George W. Edwards their interest in property on Monroe street between Fourth and Fifth streets, in exchange for the interest of the latter in a lot on Twelfth and Broadway.

POLICE COURT.

The case against Mose Bottom, charged with stealing $30 from C. P. Gress, was left open until tomorrow in Judge Sanders' court today on account of absent witnesses.

The case against Tom Riddle, for using insulting language, was continued until tomorrow.

The charge against George Berry, for alleged robbery, preferred against Cland Byrd, who failed to show up today, was dismissed.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

A suit for divorce was filed late yesterday by Mary Thomas from her husband, George Thomas, alleging abandonment.

THE FEDERAL COURT.

Judge Evans, at Louisville, has overruled the motions to remand the following cases to the state court: F. O. Roberts against the Illinois Central for $25,000 damages for the loss of a hand blown off by a fuse.

F. G. Rutolph, administrator of Alex Winston against the Illinois Central for $20,000 damages. Winston was knocked off the river from trestle by a switch engine and killed.

W. E. Downing, administrator of W. T. Downing, an engineer killed in a wreck, against the Illinois Central, for $25,000 damages.

John Whitworth against the Illinois Central for damages.

The cases were brought in the state courts and transferred to the federal court on motion of the railroad attorneys.

The Rudolph and Downing cases were dismissed without prejudice in the federal court last November and brought again in the state court, and again transferred to the federal court. Motion was made to remand to the state court and Judge Evans, at Louisville, yesterday, overruled the motion and they must be tried in the federal court.

FOR THE LAST TIME.

MISS MINNIE CLEGHORNE'S FOREBODINGS WERE BUT TOO FULLY REALIZED.

Summersville, Ga., April 11.—The killing of Miss Minnie Cleghorne by J. J. Arrington yesterday afternoon and the tragic end of the murderer has stirred every portion of Georgia, the young people being well known and popular. Members of both of the families who were not at home came to Summersville on special trains last night. The body of Mr. Arrington was taken to Rome, where the funeral was held this afternoon. Miss Cleghorne will be buried there tomorrow. She told several people there, in Atlanta and in Quitman, that Arrington had threatened to kill her. This evening the following note was found in Miss Cleghorne's writing desk: "2:30 p. m.—If anything should happen to me I have gone to meet Jim A. for the last time, and he will be responsible for what occurs. Minnie Cleghorne."

THE WEDDING.

MISS VIRGINIA REED AND MR. CLARK UNITED LAST NIGHT.

The Church Was Beautifully Decorated—Reception at the House After the Ceremony.

The wedding of Miss Virginia Reed and Mr. Bransford Clark at Grace Episcopal church last evening at 9 o'clock was a very beautiful and impressive ceremony.

The church was decorated in flowers making a fitting background for the bridal party, which consisted of Dr. I. B. Howell, Messrs. James Clarke, of Louisville, Starling Thompson, of Henderson; Misses Anne Reed, Emma Reed, Cherie Morton, Miss Ida Stevens, of St. Louis as the matron of honor.

Miss Reed entered with her brother-in-law, Mr. Montrose P. McArdle, of St. Louis, and at the chancel rail was met by Mr. [Clarke], with his brother, Mr. Frank Clarke, of Memphis, as best man. Here the ceremony was begun, and after the bride had been given to the groom, they advanced to the inner chancel where the troth was plighted. Rev. B. E. Reed performed the ceremony.

The bridesmaids were effectively gowned in pink, and carried bridesmaid roses, while the matron of honor wore ashes of roses and pink. Miss Reed looked very beautiful, and her bridal gown was an exquisite St. Louis confection. She wore natural orange blossoms and carried an ivory prayer book.

Miss Jessie Nash presided at the organ, and the undertone of music added charm to the beauty.

The church was filled with friends and well wishers of the popular young couple, and as many were in full evening dress for the reception later, it was a charming scene presented.

There were a number of visitors from a distance present for the occasion.

The reception at the Reed residence was quite a delightful affair, and many called to give Mr. and Mrs. Clark congratulations and good wishes during the evening.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

It is said that the next report of the board of health will be "hot stuff."

The board has taken up the meat question. It is alleged impure meat is sold, that one butcher killed and sold a cow that was afflicted with a large ulcer. Other questions were also discussed and will be made known at the proper time.

RIPLEY'S TRIAL

Some Damaging Testimony Being Introduced Against Captain Ripley at Frankfort

BRADLEY AND JUDGE YOST

Both Testify for the Commonwealth—Allege That Captain Ripley Knew of the Shooting Beforehand

OTHER WITNESSES IN THE CASE

Frankfort, April 11.—There have been no sensational developments in the Garnett Ripley trial.

Judge Yost this morning testified, corroborating Gov. Bradley's evidence of yesterday. He said Ripley made no secret of telling of Taylor's alleged statement that Goebel would not be alive 24 hours. He said Ripley talked like a man who was drunk or greatly excited.

Mr. Ferguson, one of Ripley's farm hands, said that before the murder Ripley remarked that Goebel ought to have been assassinated when he shot Sanford, and that he would not be surprised to hear of him being assassinated.

Wm. Jones, a colored farm hand at Ripley's, testified to hauling mysterious boxes from the depot to Ripley's. Counsel for defense interrupted him saying, "we admit Ripley receiving guns and military equipment."

Jones was somewhat shaken in his cross-examination and admitted that he had served in the penitentiary for larceny.

Court adjourned until 3 this afternoon after Jack Chinn and Surveyor Woodson had testified.

Yesterday afternoon ex-Gov. Wm. O. Bradley was placed on the stand and testified in reply to a question whether or not he had ever heard Capt. Ripley say anything about a conversation he had with Gov. W. S. Taylor:

"Yes, sir, I heard him tell of such a conversation. It occurred while the contest was pending in the state court and at the corner of Lewis and Clinton streets. I cannot undertake to give anything but the substance of the conversation. He came in and complained that Taylor was not treating him right. He said that on the day before Goebel was killed he went into Taylor's office and asked him when he should bring his men here. He said that Taylor responded: 'My God, I thought that you had brought them. Bring them at once. Goebel hasn't another day to live.' This conversation, so Ripley said, took place the day before the assassination. Judge Yost was present."

PRUETT FORGOT

HE DIDN'T SETTLE WITH THE PAPER AGENTS BEFORE HE LEFT.

Several circulation agents of the big city dailies sold in Paducah are here investigating the departure of W. G. Pruitt, who for a time had a stand near Fifth and Broadway and was agent for a number of metropolitan papers.

It is alleged that before Pruitt, who said he was going to Buffalo, N. Y., left Paducah, he forgot the little matter of settling with the papers to the tune of $200 or more.

CHARGED WITH BOOTLEGGING.

Wesley Hayden, of Fancy Farm, Graves county, was arrested last night and brought in this morning by Deputy U. S. Marshal Saunders for selling whiskey without a license. He will be tried this afternoon.

Stamp Deputy C. C. Rose, for the fire insurance underwriters, today began an inspection of buildings in the block between Third, Fourth, Broadway and Court to see that the premises are in good shape. When he has finished he will inspect the block opposite, between Third and Fourth and Broadway and Jefferson, and in this way all the buildings in Paducah will be inspected.

The city supervisors will probably finish the assessors books tomorrow, and will then send out notices of raises. There will probably be only about 200 notices this year and Monday protests will be heard by the board.

The street sweeper was brought out today, but owing to the wet condition of the mud on the brick street, it could not be used.

Pair in east; showers in west portion tonight: Friday showers and warmer.

TRANSPORT SUNK.

RAWLINS WENT DOWN AT NEW YORK—$70,000 LOSS.

New York, April 11.—The United States army transport Rawlins, which was to have sailed this afternoon for Havana, Matanzas and Cienfuegos, is lying with her saloon deck awash in thirty feet of water to the south of the army pier at the foot of Pacific street, Brooklyn. Fire was discovered aft of the Rawlins' main engine room early this morning. Two alarms brought to the pier six engines, two trucks and three fire boats, and at 9:30 o'clock so many thousands of gallons of water had been pumped into the transport's hold that she keeled over and, with water rushing in through her open ports, settled slowly until her keel touched bottom.

Four men were overcome by smoke. The property loss is $50,000. It will cost perhaps $20,000 more to pump out and raise the Rawlins.

The Rawlins was being loaded with a miscellaneous cargo, consisting for the most part of horse feed for army use.

CITY NOTES.

THE CENSUS WILL PROBABLY BE COMPLETED BEFORE MONDAY

Next—A Woman Wants Permission to Play Corpse for Forty-Eight Hours.

Mayor Lang, Chairman J. S. Jackson and Councilmen Jones and Elliot, of the cemetery committee, of the council, went to Oak Grove cemetery yesterday afternoon and decided on several important improvements.

It was decided to drain Oak Grove into Perkins creek, which will be done by laying pipes out the Hinkleville road and some distance out turning off into the creek.

A plot of ground will be laid off for the colored people, and several fills will probably be necessary to complete it.

It is also decided to lay a pavement on Thirteenth street from Boyd to Jefferson, and to create a new outlet from the city by opening Tenth street, running it through Terrell's farm.

Fourth street is torn up from Court nearly to Broadway by the sewerage being laid to the new Ogilvie building.

A strange woman called on Mayor Lang yesterday and asked permission to have herself buried in Oak Grove or some other appropriate place, for 48 hours. She proposes to be interred in a coffin for two whole days just as if she were dead, and then be disinterred at the expiration of that time alive and kicking. This is all to be done for money, which those anxious enough to have her perform the feat are to contribute.

Mayor Lang said it was the first time such a request had ever been made of him, and it would take him some little time to make up his mind. He will give the woman, whose name he did not secure, an answer tomorrow. He said that so far as he is personally concerned she could bury herself and stay buried for 48 years, but that as mayor he didn't know whether it would do to permit it or not.

Mr. S. S. Guthrie, of the F. C. Austin Co., Chicago, is here to operate the street sweeper and sprinkler. The sprinkler will be of steel, and is to be shipped from Louisville, the one sent first being wooden and unsatisfactory. Mr. Guthrie will be here about ten days or two weeks.

The census of Paducah, it is thought, will go 2,000 over the census taken last year. Every indication points to this, although there is quite a great deal of work before the enumerators finish the latter part of the week. Messrs. Will Baker, who had from Trimble street north, and Mr. Buck Whitehurst, in the Fifth ward, have finished, and others will finish in a few days.

Stamp Deputy C. C. Rose, for the fire insurance underwriters, today began an inspection of buildings in the block between Third, Fourth, Broadway and Court to see that the premises are in good shape. When he has finished he will inspect the block opposite, between Third and Fourth and Broadway and Jefferson, and in this way all the buildings in Paducah will be inspected.

The city supervisors will probably finish the assessors books tomorrow, and will then send out notices of raises. There will probably be only about 200 notices this year and Monday protests will be heard by the board.

The street sweeper was brought out today, but owing to the wet condition of the mud on the brick street, it could not be used.

Pair in east; showers in west portion tonight: Friday showers and warmer.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

Every old maid's heart has a sign "To Let."

Love is one part instinct and nine parts imagination.

Dead love is worse than wicked love, or crazy love, or even no love.

The great advantage in understanding a woman is not having to pretend you do.

When a woman tries to be equal to man she makes herself unequal to woman.

Every girl thinks her father and mother are too old-fashioned to understand her.

Somewhat a woman can always understand the sentimental things a man never says.

The woman flatter a man is to tell him they know he can't stand being flattered.

When anybody puts Satan behind him, it's because that's the place Satan wants to be.

Only a few of the good die young; the rest of them manage to get over it without it.

Every woman tells more than she knows and every man knows more than he tells.

No woman ever believes a man is a terrible hypocrite after he has once told her she is beautiful.

No man can bear to refuse a girl who takes it for granted at the start that he is going to accept her.

It is a funny thing that though you often see a sad-looking woman, you never see a sad-looking cow.

Some men would never be a what they are if it hadn't been for women that refused them and it made them mad.

If a woman loves a man and other women like 'em, she is miserably about it; if they don't she is, indignantly, with them.

A good woman is good because she doesn't know any, but little children are good because they don't know any more.

Amusing Juxtaposition of Machines.

At the New York automobile show there was an amusing juxtaposition of machines on the main floor. Ranged in a row there was a big truck bearing the word "Champaigne" in large lettering, and the brand next to it was an ambulance and next to it a patrol wagon.

Sometime circumstances make a man and sometimes it's a clean shirt. A fool can make good resolutions, but it takes a wise man to keep them. The average politician will promise anything one minute and forget it the next.

Some people are chronic liars, but the dumb man can always keep his word. Some men are so full of human nature that they have no room for principle.

When women cry it gives them time to think of some other excuse besides because. Within a year after a man dies, his widow concludes that she loved him, Oh, so dearly. It is useless to argue with some people, but lawbreakers are always open to conviction. When a man's temperature reaches the limit he is either hot-headed or has cold feet. Occasionally a man gets married because he wants some one around to blame things on. More trifles are responsible for more happiness and more misery than great happenings. The effeminate young man and the manly young woman are more to be pitied than censured. As long as a man is of a forgiving disposition a woman doesn't care what he says her debts or his. A girl should learn to bake bread before she learns to paint. It is better to throw a plate than to tickle the palate. Men didn't insist on their husbands working the lawn mower over time there might be fewer grass widows. It is said that dogs speak with their tails. If this be true a short-tailed dog must be a very poor speaker. Chicago News.
